

Hiram J Anders Passes Away

One by one the old soldiers are falling out of the rank of life's battles; day by day death is thinning their ranks. Just a few of them are left. The writers heart was deeply touched yesterday as he watched a few comrades follow the body of Hiram Jasper Anders to its final resting place, Station graveyard, where they, in their usual order, laid it to rest. They were intensely concerned as they stood about the grave into which the body was being placed, one, with tears in his eyes said, "I wonder which one of us next—perhaps God will call me."

Brother Anders was 76 years 11 months and 25 days old when he died. He had been a member of the Free Will Baptist church for more than 40 years, in which he remained till death. He leaves two sons and one daughter, and a host of warm friends who feel and share deeply his death. W

2/25/10 MCR