

Emiline Elizabeth Austin, aged resident of this section passed away at her home at Cross Rock last Tuesday. She lacked only one month of being eighty years old. The deceased joined the Methodist Episcopal Church South in early childhood and died as she had lived one of its most consistent members.

To mourn their loss she leaves her husband, Joe Austin; two sons, John and Horace Austin; three daughters, Mrs. Mary Etta Grimes, Mrs. John Brown and Mrs. Grady Reeves; thirty grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Three brothers, Jesse P. Glance of Cross Rock, Jacob M. Glance of Austin, Texas and Thomas C. Glance of Leicester also survive her.

Funeral services were held last Wednesday from the Little Sandy Mush church and burial was in the adjoining cemetery
