

Another Suicide.

Jess Baily, of Walnut Creek, a son of Rev. L. J. Baily ended his existence on last Thursday by shooting himself through the head with a revolver. Baily was preparing to move to Tennessee and had been to Marshall on the day of the deed, upon reaching his home he seems to have gone into the house and committed the deed while all alone. He leaves a wife and three children.

3/4/10 MCR