

MRS. TOM BALL PASSES AWAY

Body Brought Through Marshall Wednesday for Interment

Mrs. Tom Ball, of the Hunter fork of Walnut Creek, died at her home Tuesday night about one o'clock, age about 35. She had been a sufferer off and on for a period of something like two years. The body was brought through Marshall Wednesday afternoon, interment taking place at the Ball graveyard south of Marshall, about five o'clock Wednesday evening. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Nehemiah Griffin and Rev. Cecile Reece. The deceased is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas James, of near Laurel Fork, her husband, and two sisters, Mrs. Henry Ball and Miss Credie James.

8/8/30