

LITTLE VIVIAN BOYD DEAD

Our blessed Savior said, "Suffer little children to come unto me for such is the kingdom of heaven. On another occasion he said, "Except ye be converted and become as a little child ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven."

On December 29, 1929, little Vivian Boyd first saw the light of day in this world. She was the daughter of Mr. William Boyd and Mrs. Mabel Boyd of the Anderson Branch. Her sojourn in this low ground of sorrow was of short duration as God in His infinite wisdom saw fit to remove from our midst little Vivian in the early morning hours of February 28th. Little Vivian's soul took its flight and went back to God, who gave it, and she is today basking in the sunlight of God's love. She is shining as a bright jewel in the walls of New Jerusalem. The question can be asked, Will papa and mama meet little Vivian on the sunny banks of sweet deliverance? I can see in my mind's eye little Vivian standing in that celestial city beckoning mama and papa to come. 3/7/30
