

Death of Frank Brown

Mr. Frank Brown who has been in failing health for several years died Wednesday the 4th, at 7 o'clock. The funeral was conducted Thursday evening in the Presbyterian Church by Rev. J. N. Andre and John H. Ballard.

Mr. Brown was fifty-nine years old. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, a good citizen and neighbor. He was highly respected by all who knew him. He was always ready to lend a helping hand to every worthy and needy cause that presented itself to him.

Into each life some rain must fall, some days must be dark and dreary.

We hope that the widow and children will so follow Mr. Brown's God until they shall meet again in God's country where there will be no dark and dreary days.

Mrs. Brown and children wishes to express their appreciation and thanks to their many friends of Walnut for their kindness, help and sympathy shown to them in the sickness and death of their beloved husband and father.

We would say to Mrs. Brown and children that these earthly friends are only a type of that great Friend that sticketh closer than a brother.
