

Final rites were held for W. L. Carter near Mars Hill, N. C. He died Friday morning at 4 o'clock at his home on California Creek.

Mr. Carter was a well known resident of Madison and Buncombe County. He was a member of the board of deacons of the Little Ivy church. He was a Confederate soldier. He was known as a willing helper to his fellow men.

Pall bearers were: Active—W. E. Hawkins, Frank Ramsey, E. G. Carter, F. J. Hodges, Fred Painter, Ossie Ramsey; Honorary—L. B. English, Jim Ramsey, Genia Sprouse, Gay Carter, Paul English, Charley Hawkins.

Flower girls were the granddaughters, Mrs. Eva Hodges, Bessie Carter, Bertha Ray, Virginia Carter, Rose Edwards, Fay Briggs.

He is survived by three children, one son, B. H. Carter, and two daughters, Suetta Ray of Barnardsville, N. C., and Ada Edwards, of Mars Hill, N. C. One brother and one sister also survive. 19 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren survive.

Hokumbe and Tilson were the undertakers in charge. 5-27-32