

Mrs. Rachael Cassada, 75, died at her home on Sandy Mush, Saturday evening at 11:30. Funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon and interment followed in the family cemetery.

Mrs. Cassada was the widow of the late Abe Cassada. She leaves a host of sorrowing friends and relatives to bemoan her death. She was a beloved citizen of her community, as was made manifest during her illness and at her death.

Surviving are the following sons: Wiley, of Fort Barrancas, Fla., Charlie of Asheville; Floy and J. G. of Sandy Mush; and J. B., of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

7/22/37