

Death of Mrs. R. N. Caton

Mrs. R. N. Caton, daughter of John E. Rector, was stricken suddenly Monday afternoon with apoplexy from which she died a few moments later. Medical aid was rushed to her immediately but too late to save her as she was in a dying condition when Dr. Roberts arrived, having lived only a few minutes after the fatal stroke.

She was buried Tuesday afternoon at the family burying place near her father's old home. Rev. Mr. Brackbill and Gray had charge of the service both at the home and the grave.

Mrs. Caton leaves two children by this union. His daughter, Mrs. Moore of Greensboro, N. C., Greer Caton of Kingsport, Tenn., and Rufus Caton of Hot Springs, N. C., besides a number of friends and relatives from other points attended the funeral. The News-Record extends its sympathy to Mr. Caton and family in their sad loss.

4/23/20 (NR)