

MR. JAMES F. CANDLER
D E A D

Mr. James F. Candler, well known merchant of Marshall, died at his home near Ivy Monday, August 3, 1925, about noon, at 60. He had been suffering an infected foot for several days and had been taken by his physician to a hospital in Asheville for an operation. All was done that could be to prolong life but the infection was too deep-seated. The funeral was Tuesday morning conducted by Rev. J. A. Martin, interment following in the Tillery graveyard near Marshall.

Mr. Candler is survived by his last wife, Mrs. Bertha Candler, two children by his last marriage—Charlie and Thelma. By his first marriage the following children are living: Gayther, of Waynesville, Ernest of Marshall, and Hubert of Illinois, Mrs. J. H. Roberts of Illinois, Mrs. W. B. Miller of Ohio, and Miss Annie Candler of Marshall. He leaves six grandchildren. He also leaves two sisters—Mrs. Guide Thomas and Mrs. Sol Thomas of Madison County and the following brothers: Mr. Charlie Candler of Lewiston, Idaho; Mr. George Candler of Corbin, Ky., Mr. Zack Candler of Somerset, Ky., and Mr. Henry Candler of Craggy.
