

Death of A. T. Chandley

News of the death of A. T. Chandley will be received with sadness by many friends throughout Madison County. Mr. Chandley was taken sick only a few days ago, and his condition rapidly grew worse until Tuesday evening when he passed to the great Beyond. Mr. Chandley, "Fonzo," as he was generally known, was the son of M. A. Chandley, was about forty years of age, and for the past several months has been a traveling salesman for the Merchants Supply Company of this place. Mr. Chandley is survived by a widow and several children, a father, Mr. M. A. Chandley, two brothers and five sisters. Sylvanus, one of the brothers, is now in France.
