

Mrs. Lee Chiles, who had been seriously ill since early in the spring, died Monday afternoon at three o'clock here, at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. L. George, with whom she had been living for several months.

Funeral service was held in the church here Tuesday morning at nine o'clock with the pastor, Rev. L. B. Olive, officiating, assisted by the former pastor, Rev. J. R. Owen, Asheville. Just after this service, a number of relatives and friends carried the body to Carolina for interment there by her husband, who died several years ago. Pallbearers were nephews of the deceased, Messrs. Fred, Floyd, Clyde and James Holcombe, Guy George, and Fred Tilson.

Besides her sister, Mrs. W. I. George, of Mars Hill, she is survived by a twin sister, Mrs. Maggie Callaway, of Colorado, and another sister, Mrs. Millie Scruggs, of Charlotte.

Leona Holcombe Chiles