

Mr. Cling Clark died September 18, and the funeral was conducted at his home September 19, by Rev. J. A. Martin. He was buried at Rector's Chapel. The Masonic Order conducted the service at the cemetery. Mr. Clark was a faithful member of that order.

Bro. Clark was about 75 years old. He was a fine Christian man. He was a hard working man. He worked in his tobacco all day before he died, ate a hearty supper that night, next morning he rose at 4 o'clock, then lay back down on the bed. He complained about his throat, then told them Death had come and he was going. His last words were, "Glory to God." He has lived a true Christian life for many years. He was a good citizen, a fine neighbor, and was loved by all who knew him. He was a dear lover of children and all children loved him. He would always say when he was with children that he was with good company.

Surviving him are his wife, Ida Clark, 4 children, 2 boys and 2 girls. The boys are Parley and Hilliard Clark, both of Marshall, R. 1; the girls: Mrs. Mary Bradburn and Mrs. Effie Penland, both of Emma, near West Asheville. Besides the children, he leaves several grandchildren, lots of relatives, and a host of friends to mourn his absence, but we feel sure that our loss is his eternal gain.

10/3/30

J. A. MARTIN.