

THE DEATH OF NATTIE DEAL

The summons of death came into the home of Sister Dill, Sunday June 17 day at 12 o'clock 30 minutes called her to her reward Sister Dill was the wife of W. S. Dill. She was about 48 years old. She professed religion and joined Mars Hill Baptist church when quite young had lived a devoted christian. She told her friends she was ready to go. She was quiet peaceful and was loved by all her neighbors, to know her was to love her. She leaves her husband and one daughter, Mrs. Merritt Howell, also five brothers, and one sister. Rev. E. W. Morgan of Ash-ville, Mr. S. R. Morgan of Democrat Buncombe, Co., J. G. and M. T. Morgan of Mars Hill R-1. also Mr. E. S. Morgan of Marshall R 2. and Miss Eureka Morgan of Democrat, Buncombe County. While the home is absent a kind wife and mother and her church will miss her and the family circle is brokenhearted and we feel that we have lost a good christian woman, we realize that our loss is her eternal gain.
