

Death of Mrs. Oscar Edmonds

On last Saturday evening near four o'clock, Mrs. Oscar Edmonds departed this life. Her body was laid to rest in the Hunter graveyard near her home on Long Branch to await the last trumpet call. Mrs. Edmonds had been ill for only a short while, but bore her sufferings with great patience. She was loved by all who knew her, had been a member of the Long Branch Baptist church for several years. She leaves behind her a husband and five children and a host of friends and relatives to mourn her loss. But her spirit winged its flight to a palace bright celestial in that city of pure delight. 1/17/19
