

The many friends will learn with grief of the death of Arthur L. Edmondsor. News has been received that he fell while in active service at the front on September 26th

He was an honest and upright young man, and by his genial and unselfish disposition won many friends during the time he was in Marshall.

When war was declared he was one among the first to volunteer, and was with the much spoken of 80th Division who have displayed gallantly their deeds of bravery.

He fought and died bravely for his country, home and loved ones, therefore he will be remembered as a HERO

WHEAT