

Freeman Infant

17. Sunday morning October 9, while Mr. and Mrs. Woodard Freeman were out milking the cows their house caught on fire. The four little children were in the house and the two largest ones ran out and called their father. By the time Mr. Freeman reached the house the fire had gained only a few minutes. One of the two children that was in the house. The four months old baby was in the bed and was burned to death.

16/28/21