

The Death Angel visited the home of our beloved father, Robert Freeman, February 1, 1928, and took him away. All knew him as Uncle Bob. He was the son of Pinckney Freeman and was born November 28, 1839 at or near where he has lived all his life, on Caney Fork Branch in number 7 township, and was engaged in farming. He lived to be 88 years, 2 months and three days old and is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Mary Ball and Sallie Freeman, and eight children—Mrs. Cinda Wilson, of Little Pine, Mr. Anson Freeman of Craggy, Mrs. John Johnson of Caney Fork, Mrs. Loury Worley of Little Pine, Mr. Millard Freeman of Big Sandy, Mrs. Berry Redmon and Mrs. James Massey of Caney Fork and Mr. James Freeman of Craggy, and a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and also a host of friends, and will be missed by them all, but sooner or later we will all pay the debt that father has paid. We must meet death.

The remains were laid to rest at the Freeman Cemetery at the head of Bare Creek Thursday afternoon, Feb. 2nd, 1928, Rev. Mr. Woodson officiating at the funeral and burial.

Father, thou art asleep, 2/28
