Miss Sallie Hamlin died at her home on California Creek February 17, 1930, at the age of 79 years. Funeral service was conducted at the home by Rev. S. C. Ponder. Interment was in the family cemetery near by.

Mr. Ponder very fittingly spoke of the fine useful life of "Aunt Sallie", as she was known in her community. Especially will she be remembered for the spirit of helpfulness which prompted her, during the long years of her life, to render help to the sick and needy ones about her. She was a member of the California Baptist church. The older members of her church often speak of Miss Sallie as a very beautiful singer in the church choir.

Miss Hamlin is survived by four brothers, Thomas Hamlin of Mars Hill, W. W. Hamlin, J. D. Hamlin, and J. F. Hamlin of California Creek.
