

DEATH OF MRS. J. M. LANDERS

Mrs. J. M. Landers of Walnut died at the home of her son, P. D. Landers, of Mars Hill, on August 27. She had been sick since last April. She was 75 years old and had lived near Walnut nearly all her life. She joined the Baptist church when fifteen years old and lived a good Christian life. Everybody loved her. Her father was a church builder. He was the starter of several churches in Madison and other counties.

She is survived by her husband, J. M. Landers, one son, P. D. Landers of Mars Hill and one daughter, Mrs. Avery Riddle of Black Mountain, also 13 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.

She was buried at the Mars Hill Cemetery near her grandson, McKinley Landers.

9/10/26 (NR)