Mr. James M. Landers, age 80, died November 21 at the home of his son, Mr. P. D. Landers, at Mars Hill. He was stricken with paralysis some time ago. He had been living with his son since the death of his wife two years ago. Funeral services were Thursday afternoon at three o'clock at the Mars Hill cemetery, conducted by his pastor Rev. C. C. Bullman of Piney Grove.

The pallbearers were Messrs Fred Holcombe, Z. Eller, Bob Hensley, Floyd Ponder, James Peek and Arthur Burrell. He is survived by one son, P. D. Landers, of Mars Hill, and one daughter, Mrs. Avery Riddle of Black Mountain, twelve grand children and nine great grand children. He was born and raised at Walnut where he was superintendent of the Sunday School and Deacon of the church for many years. He was held in the highest esteem by all.
