

In The Memory of Mr.
Jackson Woody.

On Saturday night May 10th 1913, the death angel visited the home of Mr. Newton Smith of Spring Creek and called away his father-in-law, Mr. Jack Woody had been in poor health for several years. Though his death was a surprise to all the community, as the news of him being serious had hardly gone out until that of his death came.

His remains was interred at the "Flats Cemetery" on Monday following. Rev. Hail conducting the funeral rites. 5/23/13